IT staffing and consulting for vendor partners and enterprise teams

IT staffing | Project and leadership roles | Healthcare IT and RCM | Consulting projects

Wanware Technologies is a Chicago, Illinois-based IT staffing, recruitment and consulting division of iCareBilling LLC, an American health tech firm operating since 2020. For IT staffing firms, consulting companies, prime vendors and technology product companies we act as a sub-vendor: you keep the client relationship, we supply screened consultants for any IT role, from analysts and developers to project and IT managers, under your agreement, for healthcare and general IT accounts alike, plus fixed-scope consulting projects. Our medical billing, revenue cycle and healthcare IT operations give us unusual depth when a requisition calls for it.
